Patricia George is the flute professor at Sewanee Summer Music Festival at the University of the South. She has served on the faculties of Brigham Young University-Idaho, the Eastman School of Music Preparatory Department, and Idaho State University where in 1996 she was awarded the Faculty Achievement Award. She is a Contributing Editor of Flute Talk magazine and writes the monthly column "The Teacher's Studio." She has served as Secretary and Secretary-elect on the NFA Board of Directors. She is currently a member of the Editorial Review Board, the Advisory Board and Directors and the Development Committee. Ms. George is known for her "Flute Spa" workshops and has presented them throughout the US and abroad.

Flutist and composer, Steve Kujala has been one of the most identifiable flute stylists of the last 30 years.

Destined to become a flutist, Steve followed in the footsteps of his father, Walfrid Kujala, principal piccoloist of the Chicago Symphony and professor of flute at Northwestern University. With a professional career beckoning, Kujala honed his skills and received his formal musical training at the Eastman School of Music studying with Joseph Mariano, Walfrid Kujala, and James Galway. He has been the principal piccolo player of the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra for the last 18 years, having performed over 300 concerts with many of the world's top performers and acts. He has been seen on two PBS video concerts, with Josh Groban (at the Pasadena Playhouse) and Il Divo (at the Greek Theater). In addition to his studio work Kujala has also been the featured flutist with the L.A. production of The Lion King (playing 14 different ethnic flutes) for two years, and the recent production of "Wicked".

Illinois Valley FLUTE ENSEMBLE

OPUS 111 Music Studio in La Salle is the "home base" for the Illinois Valley Flute Ensemble, which was established in the summer of 1991. As it stands, the ensemble is one of six flute ensembles currently at OPUS 111 Music Studio ranging in age from 6 years through adult. The adult ensemble, "Flutopia" was formed four years ago for those who played long ago or are learning the flute for the very first time. The IVFE consists primarily of advanced high school and junior high players from the immediate Illinois Valley and surrounding areas as well. Most students perform in various groups outside of their respective band programs including the Illinois Valley Youth Symphony. The Illinois Valley Flute Ensemble has performed on television for the Easter Seals Telethon, LaSalle Christmas Open House, Maud Powell Music Festival ('96-2006, 2009) in Peru, Senica's Oak Ridge, Deer Park Country Club, Reddick Mansion, St. Margaret's Auxiliary Dinner, Bergners, the Women's Expo at the Peru Mall, Liberty Village in Streator, Princeton & Peru, Ottawa Community Hospital Cancer Survivor Breakfast, LaSalle Federated Women's Club and various private parties and seasonal gatherings. Additionally, the IVFE has invited as one of three ensembles to perform at the 37th Annual Principals Association 3-Day Conference at the Peoria Civic Center and have performed at the Chicago Flute Festival in 2001 and 2009. Both groups maintain an active performance schedule raising funds for the Scholarship Fund.
